4. Membership

4.1 Members of the company'

- a) The members are those:
 - i) noted as such on the application for the incorporation of the company upon Conversion; and
 - ii) applicants that have been admitted as members of the company in accordance with rule 4.2, and have not since ceased to be a member.
- b) If an applicant is admitted as a member, the secretary must ensure that:
 - i) the applicant is given notice of admission as a member; and
 - ii) the name and details of the applicant are entered in the members' register in accordance with rule 4.5.
- c) The secretary must ensure that each applicant not admitted as a member is informed of this decision. The directors may, but are not required to, provide reasons for the decision not to admit an applicant into membership.

 - i) have a genuine commitment to and an understanding of the Purpose;
 - ii) be a Bank; and

- c) The directors may, at their complete discretion, choose to postpone the assessment of all (but not some) membership applications received during the period between the calling of a general meeting and the holding of the general meeting to which the notice relates, or any adjournments of that meeting (including by modifying any application delegations or processes).

4.3 Member's rights

In addition to the voting rights set out in rule 6.8, each member has the right to receive notices of and to attend and be heard at any general meeting of the company.

4.4 Membership not transferable

Membership of the company and the associated rights cannot be transferred or sold in any manner whatsoever.

4.5 Register of members

- a) A register of members must be kept in accordance with the law.
- b) Without limiting the requirement under rule 4.5(a), the following must be entered in the register in respect of each member:
 - i) the name and address of the member;

4.6 Membership fees

- a) Unless a different amount applies as determined under rule 4.6(d), the joining fee for membership of the company is the amount determined by the directors from time to time. The joining fee, if any, is payable at the same time as the application for membership is made. The joining fee will be reimbursed to the applicant if the application for membership is declined.
- b) Unless a different amount applies as determined under rule 4.6(d), the annual membership fee for membership of the company is the amount determined by the directors from time to time, which will ordinarily be calculated with reference to the company's approved operating annual budget for the upcoming Financial Year. The first year's membership fee, if any, is payable at the same time as the application for membership is made and is required in addition to any joining fee. The first year's membership fee will be reimbursed to the applicant if the application for membership is declined.
- c) Other than the initial membership fee that may be payable under rule 4.6(b), annual membership fees (if any) are to be paid at such times and in such manner as the directors determine from time to time.
- d) The directors may at their complete discretion:
 - i) determine that the joining fee and/or the annual membership fee be a different amount;
 - ii) determine that the joining fee and/or membership fee payable by one or more members be payable at a different time or times, including by instalments; and
 - iii) determine, or waive all or some of, the fees payable by one or more members at any time.
- e) Unless the directors determine otherwise, a member that has not paid the required membership fee in accordance with this rule 4.6 may not exercise any of the rights associated with that member's membership, including the right to exercise any vote the member may have at a meeting of members.

- f) The joining fee and annual membership fee that may be required under this rule 4.6 are exclusive of any GST that may be payable.
- g) For the avoidance of doubt, where a membership fee is payable by instalments pursuant to rule 4.6(d)(ii), any reference in this constitution to a membership fee includes an instalment of a membership fee.
- h) If any two or more members consolidate (such as by way of merger or takeover), the continuing entity will be a single member and there will be no adjustment to or refund of membership or joining fees for the Financial Year in which the consolidation occurs.

4.7 Membership renewal

The directors may, at their discretion, send a notice to one or more members requiring that member to confirm or to renew membership of the company and/or to confirm or update that member's details (Membership Renewal Notice).

5. Ceasing to be a member

5.1 General overview

- a) There are a number of reasons why a member's membership will stop. For instance, if a member:
 - i) resigns from membership (see rule 5.2);
 - ii) automatically stops being a member (see rule 5.3); or
 - iii) is expelled from membership (see rule 5.4).
- b) The directors may adopt such other policies and procedures relating to the disciplining, suspension and expulsion of members as they so determine from time to time provided they are consistent with the requirements set out in this rule 5.
- c) Where a member ceases to be a member in accordance with the law or this constitution, that member's name must be removed from the register of members.
- d) Upon the removal of a member's name from the register of members:
 - i) the member will forfeit all rights and privileges attached to membership and all rights which that member may have against the company arising out of the membership;
 - ii) the company will have no liability to such member in respect of that member's removal from the register of members; and
 - iii) if by virtue of being a member the member was permitted to use any of the company's intellectual property (including the company's name, branding or trademarks) the member must immediately cease using such intellectual property unless the directors determine otherwise.
- e) Any member that ceases to be a member remains liable for:
 - i) any moneys which may be owing by that member to the company, including moneys owing under rule 5.1(f); and
 - ii) in the case of the company being wound up within one year of the date of cessation of membership, the relevant contribution under rule 2(c).
- f) If a member ceases to be a member for whatever reason, that member must pay the equivalent of three months' membership fees. If the member has already paid membership fees for all or a part of the three months following its cessation of membership, such fees will be deducted from the amount owing, with the remainder invoiced to the member on a pro rata basis.

5.2 Resignation from membership

A member may resign from membership of the company at any time by providing three months written notice to the company addressed to the Chairperson or the secretary. The resignation takes effect from the date which is three months after the date the notice is received.

5.3 Automatic stopping of membership

A member's membership will automatically stop if the member:

- a) is subject to an Insolvency Event, is dissolved or wound up;
- b) fails to pay any required membership fee in accordance with rule 4.6 within three months after the date on which that membership fee becomes due or such later time as the directors may determine;
- c) fails to return a Membership Renewal Notice in accordance with rule 4.7 within three months after the return due date specified in that notice or such later time as determined by the directors; or
- d) ceases to be a Bank; or
- e) in the case of member that provides Retail Banking Services in Australia, is not or ceases to be a subscriber to the Code.

5.4 Disciplining, suspension and expulsion of members

- a) This rule 5.4 describes what needs to happen when considering whether to discipline a member. In summary, the process involves:
 - i) putting the member in question on notice and giving the opportunity to provide information; and
 - ii) passing a directors' resolution to warn, suspend, expel or otherwise discipline that member.
- b) Provided the steps set out in this rule 5.4 are followed, the directors may resolve to warn, suspend, expel or otherwise discipline a member, if that member:
 - i) has refused or failed to comply with any material provision of this constitution; or
 - ii) has acted in a way that, in the opinion of the directors, is materially prejudicial to the interests or reputation of the company,

(Member Disciplinary Resolution)

- c) The directors must give the member in question at least 21 days' prior notice of the date that the directors will consider the Member Disciplinary Resolution. This notice must be in writing and inform the member:
 - i) that the directors are to consider warning, suspending, expelling or otherwise disciplining the member (as the case may be);
 - ii) of the reasons why the directors are considering taking the determined action;
 - iii) of the right for the member to give the directors, either orally or in writing, any explanation or defence relevant to the proposed disciplinary action;
 - iv) of the date, place and time of the meeting at which the resolution is to be considered; and

- v) of the right for the member to attend the meeting at which the resolution is to be considered but not to be present during any director deliberations or the putting of or voting on the resolution unless the directors resolve otherwise.
 - d) Where a director is connected with a member subject to a Member Disciplinary Resolution by virtue of being a director, officer, employee or volunteer of that member, that director is not entitled to vote on the relevant Member Disciplinary Resolution.
 - e) Directors must notify the relevant member in writing about the directors' decision within 21 days after the date a Member Disciplinary Resolution is passed, but failure to do so does not invalidate the decision.
 - f) The directors' decision in relation to the Member Disciplinary Resolution is final and takes effect as at the date the Member Disciplinary Resolution is passed.
 - g) For the avoidance of doubt, prior to making any Member Disciplinary Resolutions, the directors may direct the member in question to remedy its actions, including by directing the member to undertake specified actions within specified timeframes, or otherwise remedy its actions in accordance with any relevant company policies.

6. General meetings

6.1 Calling of general meetings

A general meeting of members may be initiated by:

- a) a resolution of the directors;
- b) the members in accordance with the Corporations Act; or
- c) the court in accordance with the Corporations Act.

6.2 Notice of general meetings

- a) Subject to the provisions of the Corporations Act dealing with consent to short notice, if a general meeting of members (including any annual general meeting) is called under rule 6.1, at least 21 days' notice of that meeting must be given to each person who is at the date of the notice:
 - i) a member eligible to receive notices of meetings or their Representative;
 - ii) a director; or
 - iii) the auditor of the company.
- b) A notice of a general meeting must specify:
 - i) the date, time and place of the meeting;
 - ii) if the meeting is to be held in two or more places, the technology that will be used to facilitate the meeting;
 - iii) the general nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting, including the text of any resolutions to be proposed at the meeting; and
 - iv) any other matters required under the law.
- c) A person who is entitled to receive notice of a general meeting or who is requested by the Chairperson to attend a general meeting is entitled to be present whether or not the person is a member.

6.3 Annual general meetings

- a) The company must hold annual general meetings in accordance with the Corporations Act.
- b) Notwithstanding rule 6.2(b), the ordinary business of an annual general meeting may include any of the following, even if not referred to in the notice of meeting:
 - i) the consideration of the annual financial report, the directors' report and the auditor's report;
 - ii) the election and appointment of directors; and
 - iii) the appointment of the auditor and the fixing of the auditor's remuneration

6.4 Quorum at general meetings

- a) No business may be transacted at any general meeting, except the election of a chair (if required) and the adjournment of the meeting, unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to business and the quorum remains present throughout the meeting.
- b) The quorum for a general meeting of members is eight members or a majority of current members (whichever number is the lowest) present by Representative and entitled under this constitution to vote at a general meeting.
- c) If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for a general meeting:
 - i) where the meeting was convened by, or at the request of, a member or members, the meeting must be dissolved; or
 - ii) where the meeting was convened by, or at the request of, the directors or the court:
 - (A) the meeting stands adjourned to the day, and at the time and place, as the directors determine or, if no determination is made by the directors, to the same day in the next week at the same time and place;
 - (B) quorum for the adjourned meeting is the same as for the original meeting, being eight members or a majority of current members (whichever number is the lowest) present by Representative and entitled under this constitution to vote at a general meeting; and
 - (C) if, at the adjourned meeting, a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting must be dissolved.
- d) In determining whether a quorum is present pursuant to rule 6.4(b) or 6.4(c)(ii)(B), if a member has appointed more than one Representative, only one Representative must be counted.

6.5 Chair of general meetings

- a) Subject to rule 6.5(b), the Chairperson must preside as chair at each general meeting.
- b) If at a general meeting:
 - i) there is no Chairperson;
 - ii) the Chairperson is absent from the meeting (or part of the meeting); or
 - iii) the Chairperson is present but is prevented from acting or not willing to act as chair of the meeting or of part of the meeting, the Deputy Chairperson (if there is one) must preside as chair of that meeting or part of it until such time as the Chairperson joins the general meeting or can resume the role of chair (as applicable).

6.6 Conduct of and participation in general meetings

- a) The chair of a general meeting is responsible for the general conduct of the meeting and for the procedures to be adopted at the meeting and may require the adoption of any procedures which are in the opinion of the chair necessary or desirable for:
 - i) proper and orderly debate or discussion; and
 - ii) the proper and orderly casting or recording of votes.
- b) The chair of a general meeting at which a quorum is present must if so directed by the members present with a majority of votes, adjourn the meeting from time to time and place to place. However, no business is to be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting at which the adjournment took place.
- c) Notice of an adjournment and the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting must be given to all persons who were entitled to receive notice of the meeting the subject of the adjournment.
- d) In addition to the rights provided for in rule 6.2(a)(iii) and 6.2(c), the auditor of the company (if any) shall be entitled to be heard at any general meeting which the auditor attends.
- e) A meeting of members may be held in two or more places linked together by any technology provided it:
 - i) gives the members as a whole in those places a reasonable opportunity to participate in proceedings;
 - ii) enables the chair to determine whether the person participating in the meeting is in fact a member or a Representative or attorney of a member;
 - iii) enables the chair of the meeting to be aware of proceedings in each place; and
 - iv) enables the members in each place to vote on a Show of Preference and on a poll.

6.7 Decisions at general meetings

- a) Except in the case of any resolution which under this constitution or as a matter of law requires a special resolution, questions arising at a general meeting are to be decided by a majority of votes cast by the members present at the meeting (including being present by technological means) and who are entitled to vote. Such decision is then for all purposes a decision of the members.
- b) In the case of an equality of votes upon any proposed resolution at a meeting of members the chair does not have a second or casting vote in addition to any vote the chair may have as a member or Representative of a member.
- c) Unless a poll is demanded, a resolution put to the vote of a general meeting must be decided on a show of preference of members, with each member present indicating a preference by a means appropriate to that member and that is readily interpreted and understood by the chair (Show of Preference).
- d) A member may only exercise one vote on a Show of Preference regardless of whether that member also holds one or more proxies.
- e) A poll may be demanded before a vote being decided by a Show of Preference is taken or before or immediately after the declaration of the result of the Show of Preference:
 - i) by the chair of the meeting; or
 - ii) by a member or members present at the meeting and representing at least 5% of the votes that may be cast on the resolution on a poll.

- f) Unless a poll is demanded, a declaration by the chair on the result of a vote on a Show of Preference is decisive of the outcome of that resolution. Such declaration does not need to refer to the number or proportion of votes for or against the resolution.
- g) Except for a poll on the question of an adjournment which must be taken immediately, if a poll is demanded at a general meeting, it will be taken when and in the manner that the chair directs, and in all cases the result of the poll will be recorded as a resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- h) A poll cannot be demanded at a general meeting on the appointment of a chair of the meeting.
- i) The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

6.8 Voting rights

- a) Each member has the right to exercise one vote:
 - i) on a Show of Preference at a meeting of members;
 - ii) on a poll at a meeting of members; and
 - iii) when voting upon a resolution to be determined without a meeting under rule 6.10(b)(iv).
- b) An objection to the qualification of a person to vote at a general meeting:
 - i) must be raised before or immediately after the result of the resolution for which the vote objected to is given; and
 - ii) must be referred to the chair of the meeting, whose decision is final.
- c) A vote not disallowed by the chair of a meeting under rule 6.8(b) is valid for all purposes.

6.9 Representation at general meetings

- a) Subject to this constitution, each member entitled to vote at a meeting of members may vote:
 - i) through its Representative;
 - ii) by proxy in a form as the directors may prescribe or accept; or
 - iii) by attorney in a form as the directors may prescribe or accept.
- b) A proxy, Representative or attorney may, subject to rule 4.2, be a member but does not need to be.
- c) The chair of a meeting may require any person purporting to act as a proxy, attorney or Representative to establish to the satisfaction of the chair that the person has been validly appointed as a proxy, attorney or a Representative and is the person named in the relevant instrument of appointment, failing which the chair may exclude that person from attending or voting at the meeting.
- d) If the company receives a proxy form from a member without the name of the proxy in that proxy form filled in, then the proxy of that member will be:
 - i) the person specified by the company in the proxy form as being the proxy; or
 - ii) if no such person is specified by the company in the proxy form, the chair of the meeting for which that proxy applies.
- e) A proxy or attorney may not vote at a general meeting or adjourned meeting unless the instrument appointing the proxy or attorney is received:

- i) at the registered office of the company or at another place or electronic address specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting; and
 - ii) at least 48 hours before the time scheduled for the commencement of the meeting.
- f) Unless the company has received prior written notice of one or more of the circumstances listed at rules 6.9(f)(i) to 6.9(f)(iii), a vote cast by a proxy or attorney at a meeting of members is valid even if, before the proxy or attorney votes:
- i) the member dies, or in the case of a member that is a body corporate is subject to an Insolvency Event, is dissolved or wound up;
 - ii) the member revokes the proxy's or attorney's appointment; or
 - iii) the member revokes the authority under which a third party appointed the proxy or attorney.
- iv) Unless otherwise permitted by the chair, the authority of a proxy or attorney to speak and vote for a member at a general meeting is suspended while that relevant member is present at the meeting.

6.10 Meetings conducted using technological means

- a) Subject to the Corporations Act and this constitution, the contemporaneous linking together by a form of technology of a number of members sufficient to constitute a quorum constitutes a general meeting.
- b) Where a general meeting is held at two or more venues using any form of technology:
 - i) a member participating in the meeting is taken to be present in person at the meeting;
 - ii) the provisions of this constitution relating to general meetings apply, so far as they can and with such changes as are necessary, to general meetings held using that technology;
 - iii) the meeting is taken to be held at the place determined by the chair provided that at least one of the members present at the meeting was at the place for the duration of the general meeting; and
 - iv) the conduct of the meeting must comply with any policies and procedures relating to the meetings conducted using technological means as determined by the directors from time to time.
- c) If the technology used in rule 6.10(b) encounters a technical difficulty, whether before or during the general meeting, which results in a member not being able to participate in the meeting, the chair may, subject to the Corporations Act and the requirements of rule 6.3 being satisfied:
 - i) allow the meeting to continue; or
 - ii) adjourn the meeting either for a reasonable period of time as may be required to fix the technology or to such other date, time and location as the chair of the meeting considers appropriate.
- d) For the avoidance of doubt, where the chair has allowed the general meeting to continue in accordance with rule 6.10(c)(i), any resolution passed at that meeting is valid.
- e) Subject to the Corporations Act and this constitution, the directors may make policies and procedures relating to the passing of member resolutions by technological means as determined by the directors from time to time

6.11 Decisions without meetings

Unless the Corporations Act requires the holding of a meeting, members may pass resolutions and otherwise make decisions outside of a members' meeting in any manner (including through the use of technology) provided:

- a) all members entitled to vote on the resolutions are sent a copy of the resolutions and are given a reasonable time to respond considering the urgency and nature of the matters under consideration;
- b) each such resolution is passed by at least 75% of all current members (unless a higher number or threshold is required under this constitution or by law); and
- c) such manner complies with:
 - i) the law; and
 - ii) any policies and procedures relating to the passing of member resolutions as determined by the directors from time to time.

6.12 Resolutions of single member company

If the company has only one member, the company may pass a resolution by that member recording it and signing the record. That record is to be taken as a minute of the passing of that resolution.

Part D – Not-for-profit

7. No profits for members

- a) Subject to rule 7(b), the assets and income of the company must be applied solely in furtherance of the Purpose and no portion of the income or assets of the company may be paid or transferred, directly or indirectly, to any member.
- b) The company may, with the approval of the directors, make payment in good faith to a member:
 - i) by way of reasonable and proper payment for any goods supplied or services rendered to the company (including payment as a consultant);
 - ii) by way of interest on money lent to the company by that member at a reasonable and proper rate per annum not exceeding the rate for the time being charged by the company's bankers on overdrawn accounts;
 - iii) by way of reasonable and proper rent for premises let by that member to the company;
 - iv) by way of a grant (or similar contribution) awarded in furtherance of the Purpose;
 - v) as a result of the member's participation in a social bond or similar program of the company; and
 - vi) for authorised out-of-pocket expenses reasonably and properly incurred by that member in connection with the affairs of the company.
- c) For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this rule 7 prevents a member from receiving such services as may ordinarily be provided by the company in the course of undertaking its activities.

Part E – Directors and secretary

8. Directors

8.1 Number of directors

- a) The minimum number of directors is three. Subject to rule 8.1(b), the maximum number of directors is 16.
- b) The directors may change the maximum number of permitted director positions in the manner required by the Corporations Act.
- c) If at any time the number of directors falls below three, the remaining director or directors may act but only:
 - i) in an emergency;
 - ii) for the purpose of convening a general meeting of the company; or
 - iii) for the purpose of increasing the number of directors to the amount required to constitute a quorum in accordance with rule 8.13(b).

8.2 Becoming a director

Subject to rule 8.3, a person may become a director in the following ways:

- a) automatic appointment by virtue of holding the position of Chief Executive Officer of the company (CEO Director);
- b) automatic appointment by virtue of their position (Ex-Officio Directors);

Subject to rule 8.2(d):

- a) one director position is reserved for, and may only be filled by, a CEO Director;
- b) up to 10 director positions may be filled by Ex-Officio Directors; and
- c) the remaining director positions may be filled by Member Elected Directors.

8.4 Qualifications and requirements of directors and directors' term of office and term limits

- a) The qualifications and requirements of directors, including the specific qualifications and requirements for CEO Directors, Ex Officio Directors, Member Elected Directors and directors filling a Casual Vacancy are set out in the table at rule 8.5.
- b) The terms of office for CEO Directors, Ex Officio Directors, Member Elected Directors and directors filling a Casual Vacancy are set out in the table at rule 8.5.
- c) Each director is to remain as a director until that person's term of office expires or until that person resigns or is otherwise removed as a director in accordance with the law and this constitution.

- d) A person who holds, or has held, the position of director is not restricted in how many terms of office that person may serve and is eligible for re-election or reappointment (as the case may be).
